

CEDUNA CIRCULAR

The District Council of Ceduna Newsletter
July 2022

Local Government Elections ENROL

Voters Roll Closes 5pm, 29 July 22.

If you are enrolled to vote in State Elections you don't have to do anything.

Not on the State Electoral Roll? You may still be eligible to Vote in Council Elections, visit councilelections.sa.gov.au for more details and to enrol.

NOMINATE

Interested in becoming an Elected Member (Mayor or Councillor)? Council will be conducting a Face-to-Face candidate information session on Wednesday 10 Aug 22, 5:30pm in the Hotel Function Room.

Nominations open on 23 August 2022.

Public Amenities Project

The New Public Toilets at the Skate Park and Thevenard Botanical Park are now operational. The Pinky Point facilities are nearing completion.

Replacement of the Smoky Bay Public Toilets are expected to commence this week. During the replacement of the Smoky Bay Public Toilets at least one of the locations will be available for use (Cockleshell Park or Denton Street Playground).

Works at Denial Bay & Fosters Boat Ramp are expected to commence August.

Council Car Park

You may have noticed that Council workers have been doing some maintenance works to the Council Car Park on O'Loughlin Tce. These works are in preparation for the resealing of the Car Park.

Due to unforeseen circumstances the resealing works have been delayed and Council anticipates that this will now be completed in September 2022.
